

Official Grade Scale Rubric

Pacific Link College is committed to maintaining a transparent, equitable, and consistent approach to evaluating student performance. This grading scale rubric serves as the standardized framework for assessing academic achievement across all programs and courses. It ensures clarity in expectations, fairness in grading, and alignment with institutional, provincial, and national educational standards.

This policy applies to all instructors, administrators, and students, outlining the criteria for assigning grades.

By adhering to this rubric, Pacific Link College upholds its dedication to integrity and excellence in education, creating an environment where students are evaluated based on merit, consistency, and the rigor of their academic work.
